

JONAH

You cannot hide from God

Jesus wants boys and girls everywhere to come to Him and worship Him alone. John 3:16.

Forgive me, Lord Jesus. Save me
from all my sin.

YOU CANNOT HIDE FROM GOD – by Manna Publications (USA) Inc
Copyright © 2009 by Lorna Morris Art by Virginia Manson www.mannapublications.org
Text must not be altered without permission.
8.20.2009

Tarshish was a long way from Nineveh.

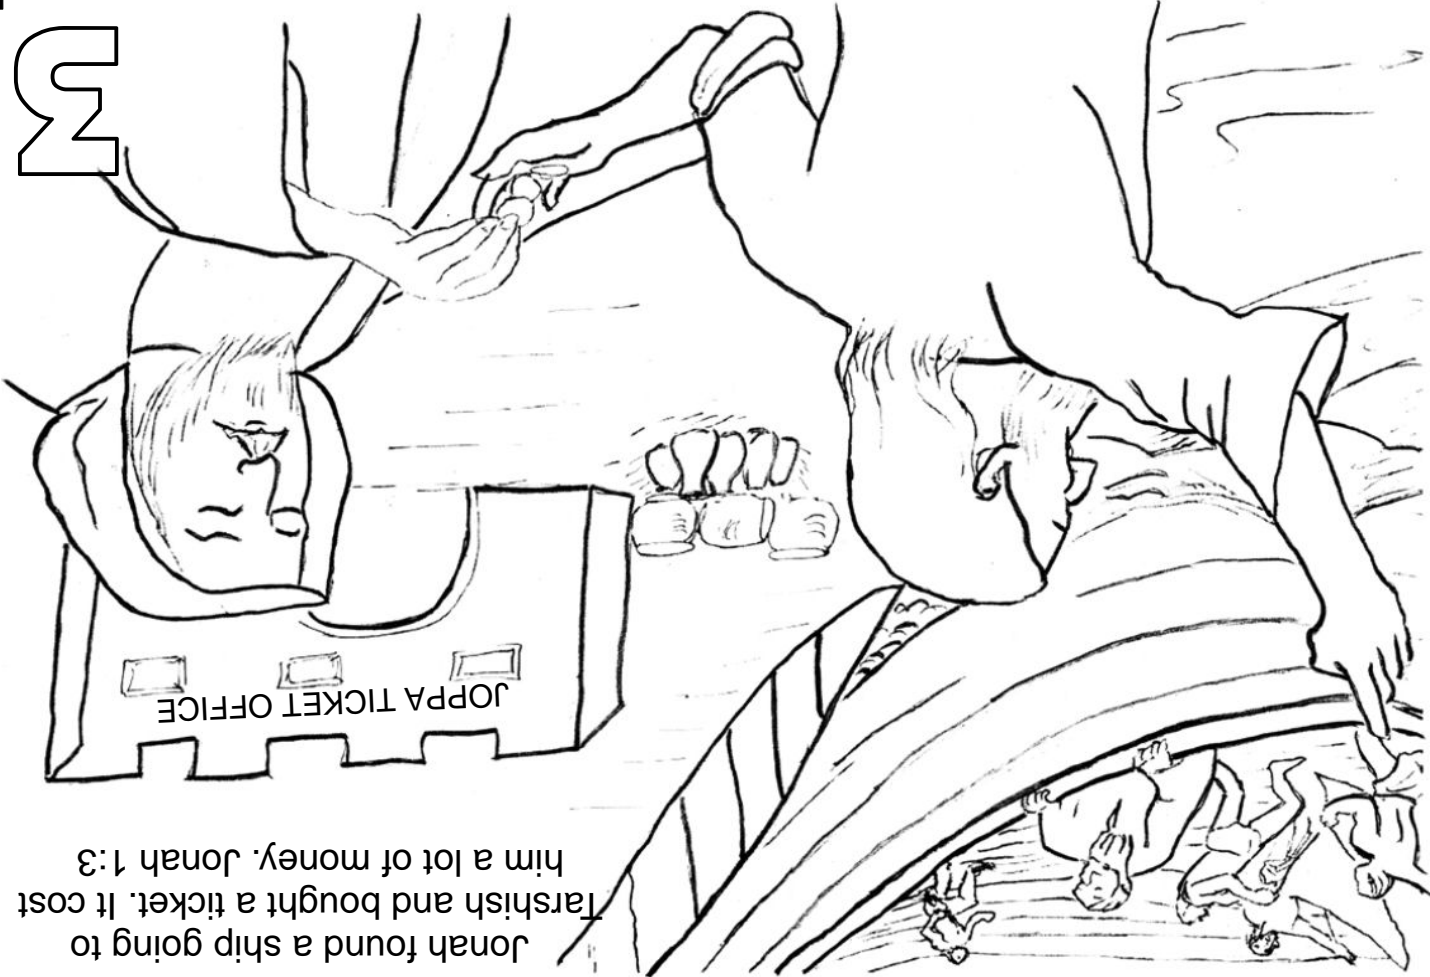

From the king down to the children, they began to pray.
The people prayed for forgiveness. Jonah 3:10.

Jonah was not happy. They were not of his people group.
They were his enemies.

14

Jonah found a ship going to Tarshish and bought a ticket. It cost him a lot of money. Jonah 1:3

3

Jonah tried to hide from God!

4

Jonah went to the bottom of the ship. He was sound asleep.
Can he hide from God?

The king was frightened when he heard Jonah's message. Jonah 3:7

I command everyone in Nineveh to repent of their sin and worship the God of heaven and earth.

40 more days, O
king and the city of Nineveh will be destroyed.

13

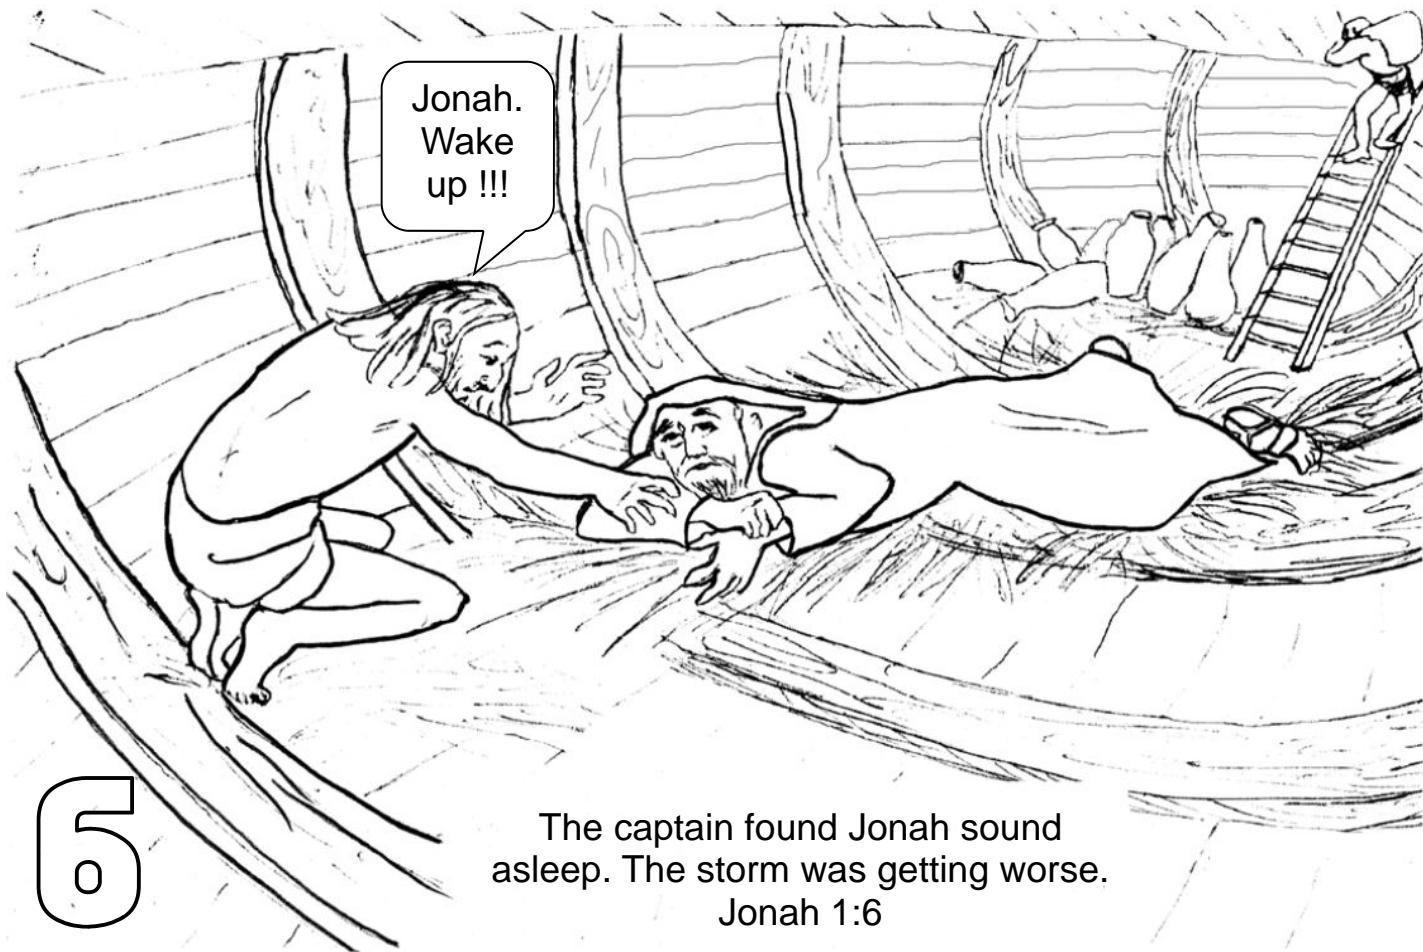

12

God sent a hurricane.
The sailors were afraid.
They prayed to their gods of wood and stone.
They threw the cargo overboard.

↑

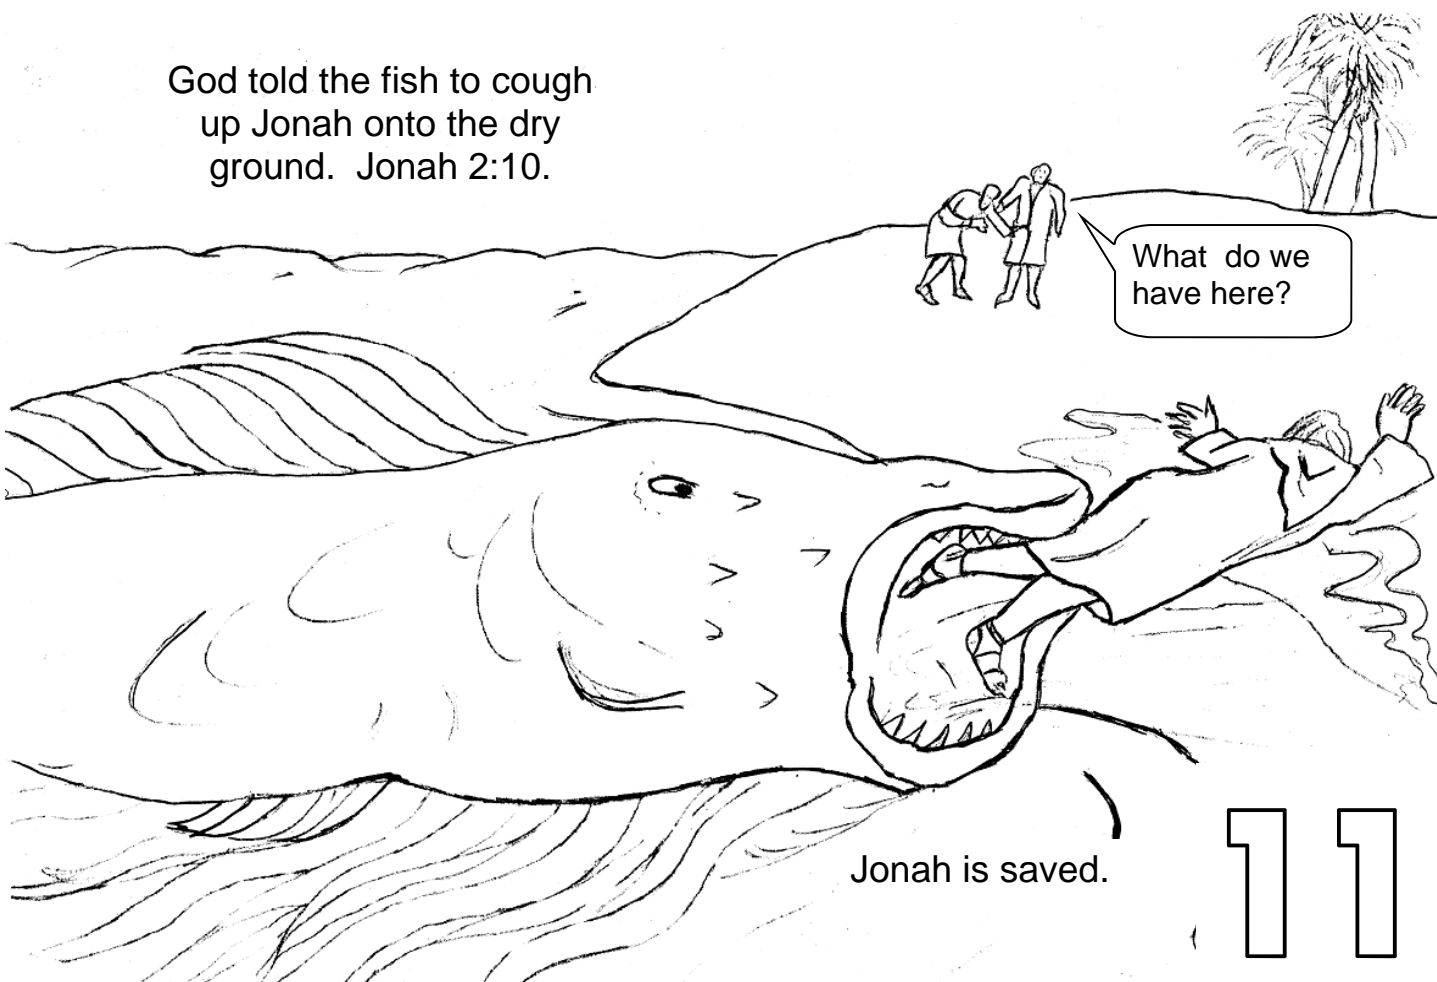

5

6

The captain found Jonah sound asleep. The storm was getting worse.
Jonah 1:6

God told the fish to cough up Jonah onto the dry ground. Jonah 2:10.

Jonah is saved.

11

The LORD showed the sailors that Jonah was the problem.
Jonah 1:8,9.

Who are you?

I am Jonah. I am running away from the God of heaven and earth.

10

Inside the fish,
Jonah prayed,

Lord, I am so sorry. Please forgive me.

7

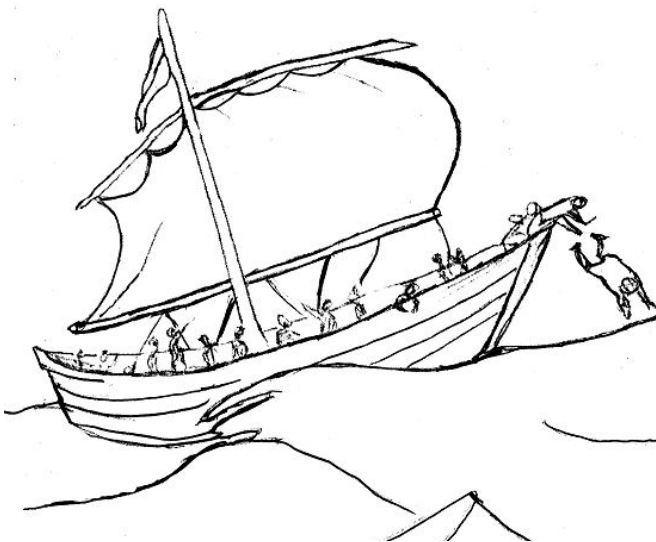

Jonah told the Captain to throw him in to the sea and it would be calm again!

The captain had never lost a man overboard.

The sailors knew that Jonah's God had something to do with this storm. They did not want to throw him overboard.

The Creator of the world sent a BIG FISH to swallow Jonah. Jonah 1:17.

The sailors prayed to Jonah's God and the storm stopped.

